Sermon "Understanding Ancient Words"

An Affirmation of Faith "The Apostles' Creed"

I believe in God, the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth; and in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord: who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried: He descended into hell. The third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty: from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead. I believe in the Holy Ghost, the holy catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting. Amen.

The Lord's Supper

Pastor: Eternal God, who has created the heavens and the earth, giving breath to every living thing, we thank you for all the gifts of creation and for the gift of life itself. We thank you for making us in your own image, for forgiving us when we act as though you have no claim on us, and for keeping us in your steadfast care.

People: We rejoice in Jesus Christ, our risen Savior, eternally begotten by you, who was born of your servant Mary and shared the joys and sorrows of life as we know it. We remember Christ's death, we celebrate Christ's resurrection, and, in the beloved community of your Church we await Christ's return at the end of history.

Pastor: We take courage from the abiding presence of your Holy Spirit in our midst. We offer you our praise for women and men of faith in every age who continue to be witnesses to your love and justice. Loving God, with all the prophets, martyrs, and saints, and all the company of heaven we give you glory as we say:

Unison: Holy, holy, holy, Lord God of hosts, heaven and earth are full of your glory; Hosanna in the highest. Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest.

Pastor: (Words of Institution) Come, Holy Spirit, come.

People: Bless this bread and bless this fruit of the vine. Bless all of us in our eating at this table that our eyes may be opened, and we may recognize the risen Christ in our midst, in each other, and in all for whom Christ died. Amen.

Pastor: This is the table of our Lord set with bread and the cups of juice. All who desire to share in the presence of Christ and be one with the community of God's people here gathered are invited to participate.

People: This is the bread of life and cup of our salvation. Thanks be to God!

Pastor: Ministering in the name of Christ Jesus, I give you this bread and this cup.

Deacons come forward: Distribution of the Bread and Cup (During distribution each hymn will be played through and then we sing verse 1

Prayer of Thanksgiving

Unison: We give thanks, Almighty God, that you have refreshed us at your table by granting us the presence of Jesus Christ. Strengthen our faith, increase our love for one another, and send us forth into the world in courage and peace, rejoicing in the power of the Holy Spirit; through Jesus Christ our Savior. Amen.
